I. Categories

On the Forum page, you will see that the forums are split into categories. General Forums can include all or only a select number of students and families. If you can see the category title, then you will receive notifications for new forum posts. The number next to the category title shows you how many posts are within that forum category.

|---|---|--|--|--|
| The views, announcements, and items published in this forum are not necessarily sup board or member families, our host Church, or Homeschool-Life.com. | | | | |

Some forums are set up to be moderated where new posts and notifications don't get sent until they are approved by the moderator.

IV. Delivery Preferences

Each family has the ability to change their delivery preference when it comes to forums.

To make these changes, you'll want to start by selecting Profile in the top navigation bar.

On your Profile page, you'll want to scroll down until you reach the Forum Emails section. Your main options are whether you'd like to receive email notifications and if you do, how often you would like them sent. You can also choose which categories you want to be notified about. If your child needs to receive the daily emails from their classes, then you will need to make sure you select Many Emails.

Once you've made your changes, scroll to the bottom of the page and select Update.

V. Post Direct from Email

You can start a new thread by sending an email to: forums@homeschool-life.com

In the subject line, you'll enter your Thread Title, and then you'll fill in the body of your thread.
